Mr. Virgil Randall

Cleveland 20, Ohio

Dear Brother Randall:

The work at Forrest Hill sounds like an excellent opportunity. I am happy that the Brethren there requested my consideration of the work.

I have been with this congregation for only two and one-half years. I am also completing work at Tennessee Tech. Our work here with the Church seems to be approaching the most productive period since our coming.

Please accept my apologies and regrets for being unable to consider the work in Cleveland Heights. I wish you success in obtaining a new man. I remain deeply interested in the Church in the north having worked three and one-half years in Dayton, Ohio. If I can be of help any time in the future, please feel free to call on me.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
